I. POLICY

Programs are supported and valued by the criminal justice system.

II. PROCEDURES

River City Correctional Center (RCCC) encourages cooperation and involvement with a variety of criminal justice and human service agencies and organizations. Such information may be shared in the form of aggregate information. Specific client information may be shared with consent through a "Release of Information" form signed by the resident.

A. Each pod has access to the United Way Resource Manual and Hamilton County Directory.

In a collaborative effort, Hamilton County Adult Probation has six Probation Officers who work on-site at River City Correctional Center and supervise exclusive caseloads of RCCC residents. The supervising Probation Officer attends weekly administrative meetings to ensure coordination between RCCC and the Probation Department in order to coordinate services and information sharing.
